Which One Are You?

If you don't become a reconciler of the lost, you will become an evaluator of the saved. There is something inherent in our nature that wants to see people get right with God, and if we don't direct it at the lost, we will direct it at the saved. Then, instead of pursuing sinners, we will spend our time policing the saints. All of us have been called to be "fishers of men," but when those that are called to fish don't fish, they fight. When energy that was meant to be used outside the church is used inside the church, the result is explosive. Instead of casting nets, we cast stones. Instead of reaching out to the lost, we become critics of the saved. Instead of helping hands, we point accusing fingers. Instead of helping the hurting, we hurt the helpers and sadly, the lost go unreached, the poor unfed, and the confused go unconsolated. But when those who are called to fish, fish – they flourish. Souls are reached, lives are changed and the world is impacted.

Luke 4:18. The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised. Jesus

Walk gently in the lives of others, not all wounds are visible

To make a difference in someone's life, you don't have to be brilliant, rich, beautiful, or perfect. You just have to care.

It's not our job to fix, change or judge people. It's our job to love people. the rest is up to God.

There are wounds that never show on the body that are deeper and more hurtful than anything that bleeds.

Thank You for Your Support

As we reflect over the last year, we have so much to be thankful for. We would like to acknowledge a few.

First of all, we are grateful to God for the way he has provided in so many ways and been with us each and every day.

We are also grateful for people like you who pray for us on a daily basis, or whenever the Lord prompts you to pray for us. The enemy is real and there are days when that is more evident than others.

There are those of you who have donated items to the ministry for which we thank you very much.

With Grateful Hearts We Say Thank You

May God bless you the same way you have blessed us and those that benefit from your kindness

Our desire is to reach out to everyone regardless of their financial situation, so we want to thank those who give monetarily to the ministry. Not only do you bless us, but you bless those who come to us and are unable to give back. We are grateful to those of you who have encouraged us in this work. We echo the words of the apostle Paul who said, "we are bound to thank God always for you."

May God richly bless you for your support in every way that you have supported the ongoing work of the ministry.
