Healing In Christ

"I am so grateful for the healing I have experienced through Jesus Christ"

For years my family had suggested that it would be a good idea for me to go for counseling to find healing for my hurts from my childhood. I was scared of being so vulnerable, but finally decided to give Peaceful Heart Ministries a try. I was very afraid on the first day, but was so amazed at how safe it felt at Peaceful Heart Ministries. No one judged me or tried to tell me it was all in my head. Dave taught me how to be open about what I was feeling and to understand why I was feeling that way. He showed me how my heart was locked up, and with prayer and time, I was able to feel Jesus' love in a very real way I never understood before! I also learned to connect with God as a loving Father who was with me even in the hard times in my past. Due to my identity in Christ being secure, I have also grown closer in my relationships with other people. I no longer am so afraid of someone getting too close to my heart. My friends and family say I have changed and I have much deeper connections with them than I was able to have before. Since first coming to Peaceful Heart Ministries, I experienced a traumatic accident that I was sure would completely undo me. But Praise the Lord, thanks to Him and the tools I learned with counseling, I have been able to begin the healing process and feel God closer than ever. Some days I feel like I still have such a lot to grow in, but when I look back, I'm grateful for all the healing I have experienced through Christ! A client

Urgent Need

It takes funds to keep Peaceful Heart Ministries operating and we rely on donations to make it possible for individuals and couples to come

We're working hard to keep the ministry running and serving our community, but we currently need help to cover our daily operating costs.

Would you consider donating financially or paying forward to the ministry to help those who are unable to support themselves? Any gift, big or small, makes a difference.

We thank you in advance for your consideration and generosity in this time of need. May God bless you.

Your support makes a difference for someone and is greatly appreciated!

As a board and staff we are excited to have Ben & Luella Martin join the team as a Public Relations Personnel. Ben & Luella have caring hearts and a desire to see those in bondage set free.
